

Annexure-C

Technical & Commercial requirements

1. Only those manufacturers, who are having manufacturing, are eligible to participate in this tender. Firms are requested to attach the list of plant & machineries available with them for manufacturing of the item as per specification along with technical bid, so that capacity can be assessed. For the above mentioned facilities, no tenderer is allowed to have tie-up source. For surface coating/protection, firm may outsource.
2. The firm should have in house facilities for Inspection/testing. Firm should enclose a list of all the testing equipments available with them along with technical bid. In case of tie-up for testing facilities, the details of tied-up source to be given.
3. Firms have to give their consent that they will submit the security deposit in case of contract is awarded and will also accept payment terms as well as warranty/Guarantee clause in the technical bid.
4. Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) is to be furnished by all the firms except from those firms who are registered with Ordnance factories, the central purchase organization (e.g. DGS&D), NSIC or concerned department or ministries of government of India. Proof is to be submitted along with offer, to claim exemption. EMD may be accepted in the form of Account payee demand draft, Fixed Deposit Receipt, Banker's Cheque or Bank Guarantee from any of the public sector banks or a private sector bank authorized to conduct government business. The EMD is to be furnished for a valid period of 45 days beyond the final bid validity period.
5. Firm has to give their consent that PBG (Performance Bank Guarantee) will remain valid for a period of sixty days beyond the date of completion of contractual obligations, including warranty. The BG is returned to the supplier on successful completion all his obligations under the contract.
6. Firm has to attached the document having GST No. (e.g. Letter head e.t.c.)
7. In case of non compliance of any above condition, offer may be ignored.